

Dr. Mu Lei

Department of Digital and Intelligent Language Services | Distinguished Professor

Biography

Dr. Mu Lei received her Ph.D. in Translation Studies from Hong Kong Baptist University and is a doctoral supervisor and a Professor (Grade II) at Guangdong University of Foreign Studies. She has taught at Xidian University, Hainan University, and Guangdong University of Foreign Studies for more than 40 years. She serves as a Council Member of the Translators Association of China and a Committee Member of the Translation Theory and Translation Teaching Committee. She was the first Secretary-General and is currently an Academic Committee Member of the National Steering Committee for Postgraduate Education in Translation and Interpreting. Dr Mu has served as Principal Investigator for four projects funded by The National Social Science Fund of China, including Youth, General, and Key Projects, as well as more than ten projects funded by the Ministry of Education or at provincial and ministerial levels. She has published multiple monographs, edited volumes, and translated works, and has published numerous academic papers.

Titles and Positions

Doctoral Supervisor; Professor (Grade II), Guangdong University of Foreign Studies;
First Secretary-General / Current Academic Committee Member, National Steering Committee for Postgraduate Education in Translation and Interpreting

Work Experience

- Taught at Xidian University, Hainan University, and Guangdong University of Foreign Studies for over 40 years.

Education

- Ph.D. in Translation Studies, Hong Kong Baptist University

Social Service

- Council Member, Translators Association of China; Committee Member, Translation Theory and Translation Teaching Committee
- First Secretary-General / Current Academic Committee Member, National Steering Committee for Postgraduate Education in Translation and Interpreting

Research Achievements

Publications

- Published numerous academic papers.

Research Projects Undertaken by Dr Mu Lei as Principal Investigator or Participant

- Served as Principal Investigator for four projects funded by The National Social Science Fund of China, including Youth, General, and Key Projects, and more than ten projects funded by the Ministry of Education or at provincial and ministerial levels.

Other Achievements

Monographs, Edited Volumes and Translated Works

- Published multiple monographs, edited volumes, and translated works.